

Q1. DON'T LET REGRETS STOP YOU

Walt's regret about Disneyland?

He wished he had the means,

in the beginning,

to buy a whole lot more acreage.

Once people got wind of a Walt Disney World,
the surrounding land became a premium commodity,
an amusement park "money magnet."

But!

He had an orange grove!

And what he DID with THAT orange grove.

Use what you have!